Loan of Mr. Deseraj Urs' services to the Govt. from the British military Department.

No. 23.

Office of the Dewan of Mysore
Dated Camp Mysore, 24th October
Desp. 31st do 1887.

(1)

To.

The Offg Resident in Mysore.

Sir,

I have the honor to request that you will be so good as to obtain for the Durbar the loan for two years of the services of Deseraj Urs, a Jemadar of the 3rd Madras Light Cavalry. Particulars re-garding his British service are entered in the margin.

2. His Highness the Maha Rajah desires to employ him as his Aide-de-Camp and it is also proposed to utilize his services for instruction in drill

Joined the 3rd Madras Light Cavalry as Jemadar in June 1885.
Went in Sept 1886 with the 7th Madras Lancers to Burma on War service.
Is now at Mysore on 3 months' leave which expires on 13th December 1887.
Present pay Rs 60, but has been re-commended for promotion to Subedar, 2nd Class, Pay Rs 105=

24/10/87

to Silledar Regiments at Mysore and Bangalore.
His pay when employed under the Durbar will be Rs. 20-5/- per month, or such higher salary as he may become entitled to by promotion in the British service. The Durbar will, in addition to this amount, pay also his contribution for British Pension under Rule 3, Section 9(b), of the Civil Pension Code, 6th Edition, or under any other rule which may be held to be ap-plicable to this case.
His Highness will feel 3 much obliged if you will be so good as to take the necessary steps to obtain the loan of Desiraj Urs' services as early a date as may be possible. It would be a great convenience if the arrangement referred to could be effected so as to obviate the necessity for Desiraj Urs' return to Burma at the expiration of his leave in December next. If the question of his contribution for pension is likely to require some time for its settlement, I beg that sanction may first be obtained for the transfer of this officer's services, it being understood that the Durbar will agree to any arrangement regarding his pension which the Govt. may finally decide upon. Desiraj Urs agrees to the transfer now requested.
